COUNTY TICKET ALL REPUBLICAN

McDuffee Re-Elected Sheriff and Humphreys Wins Over Hughes For Treasurer—Others Have No Opposition.

So far as county offices are concerned, a straight Republican ticket has been elected, from R. N. Stanfield for Representative down to M. L. Case for coroner.

George McDuffee, Republican candidate for sheriff, has been returned to that office by a substantial majority over his Democratic opponent, Jeff Jones. Thos. J. Humphreys defeated Hanson Hughes for treasurer, although not by a very wide margin.

Other officials for county offices elected are S. E. Notson, for District attorney, Lee Padberg for commissioner, Mrs. Lena Snell Shurte for school superintendent, Loy M. Turner for surveyor, J. A. Waters for county clerk and M. L. Case for Coroner.

The election was a quite affair so far as Heppner was concerned, but the election crowds were large, especially in the evening. At places downtown where the results were received, the crowd was big and the streets presented an extra lively appearance.

COUNTY COURT PROCEEDINGS

Following are the Court proceedings of the Morrow County court in regular session in November, 1916.

Complete Returns Next Week.

This paper will contain the official election returns next week. Owing to the delay in receiving Dairy precinct vote, the local board was unable to complete its count up to our time of going to press. Latest returns indicate that California, Minnesota and New Mexico continue to remain in doubt.

Allstott has filed with the County Court of Morrow County, Oregon his final account as such administrator, and that said Court has fixed Monday the 11th day of December, 1916 at 10 o'clock a. m. as the time and the county court room in the Court House in Heppner, Oregon as the place for hearing such account and any objections thereto and for the settlement of said estate.

VOTE FOR PRESIDENT IS CLOSE

FINAL RESULT IS YET IN DOUBT, ALTHOUGH RETURNS FROM MINNESOTA GIVE HUGHES LEAD THERE—OREGON WON BY HUGHES BY 4000.

The vote for President of the United States is developing into the closest contest in years and the second day after the election the result still hangs in the balance. One thing is certain, whether President Wilson or Mr. Hughes is victorious, the winner will not have a wide margin of electoral votes.

Minnesota, which was at first conceded to the Democrats, gave Hughes a margin of 1000 after the last vote had been counted. The race was so close that a re-count has been ordered there. This is the substance of a report that reached Heppner this morning, although it has not yet been verified. Minnesota has 12 electoral votes.

California is another state which hangs in the balance. It is claimed by both sides. Hiram Johnson, republican, running for United States senator, carried the state by 200,000, according to the estimates made from present indications. With this as a criterion, Hughes should prove the winner. However, Republican leaders say that Mr. Hughes does not need California to win.

Oregon has given Mr. Hughes a safe margin of 4000 votes if reports coming from Portland are to be relied upon. It was freely predicted before the election that Wilson would carry Portland strongly, but final reports have delivered Oregon's metropolis into the Hughes columns. Willamette Valley counties also went strong for Hughes.

In Morrow county with 16 out of 7 precincts complete and the vote for resident definitely known, President Wilson has carried the county by approximately 80 votes. The final result being Hughes 709 and Wilson 780. Normally, this county is republican by 400. The heavy Wilson vote here is attributed to the Women voters.

In the vote at large, the big eastern states were early conceded to Hughes, New York, Illinois, Indiana, Wisconsin, Michigan, Pennsylvania and the New England States giving the Republican nominee a heavy vote.

W. R. C. HAS GREAT RECORD OF ACHIEVEMENT

The Woman's Relief Corps is the only auxiliary of the Grand Army of the Republic. Its aims and achievements are so well known now that but a brief sketch is needful at this time.

In the year 1869 the first Corps was organized at Portland, Maine, as an auxiliary to the first Post of the G. A. R.

Nearly ten years later Massachusetts and Ohio organized into the relief work, Massachusetts took the name of the Portland society and Ohio that of "Post Ladies' Aid Society."

The National Woman's Relief Corps was organized at Denver, in 1883, and the work and ritual of the Massachusetts society were adopted.

Since that time the order has gone steadily forward and each year has seen a great amount of charitable and relief work accomplished. The business of the order has been reduced to a system which is a marvel of simplicity and accuracy.

Although the demands upon the order for assistance are not as numerous, nor as urgent as during the twenty-five years following the war, there still are many opportunities for every loyal woman to lend a helping hand or give a word of cheer to the Union veterans, the boys who wore the blue.

This is purely a labor of love on the part of the members of this order whose hearts are fired with love for our country and devotion to our flag, and who deem it high honor to minister to those whose heroism has given us a re-united country and a flag whose galaxy of stars is complete.

This order gladly welcomes every loyal woman "who has not given aid or comfort to the enemies of the Union," whether she is a blood relative of a Comrade or not. In pursuance of this thought I would like to quote briefly from an address of our first National President, E. Florence Barker as follows: "What shall we do with the maiden through whose veins coursed the same proud blood, in whose heart was the same love of freedom as in her manly lover's, who, with white lips and almost breaking heart, folded away the wedding garments, making her sacrifice in the silent chamber, while she prayed for strength to go forth to bid her all good bye, and charge him to remember her prayers were following, amid shot and shell, the bravest soldier in the land. So did she impart strength to him, making him a better soldier, a truer man. It was a comrade's duty to return to the maiden her messages of love, and tell her of the bullet's fatal work. And now, when so purified as by fire, she comes to our doors, asking leave to work for her lover's comrades, shall we say, 'Stand aside, we have only honors enough to extend to the wives, mothers, sisters and daughters of our heroes, and unless ranked among those, you cannot work under our banner?'"

"Remember woman is loyal by birth not by marriage." During these later years much of the work of the order has been along lines of patriotic education. It is

HEPPNER OUTPLAYS ALTHOUGH OUT SCORED

Heppner High School outplayed their opponents, the Ione high school football team in their second game of the season at Ione last Tuesday, but the Ione boys were not out-scored. The final result stood 13 to 3 for the Egg City warriors.

Heppner's three points were scored early in the game after they had rushed the ball down the field by a series of end runs and line plunges. After getting within striking distance of the goal and being unable to make yardage, quarterback Nickolson called for a place kick. He booted the ball fairly between the posts. Nickolson tried for goal from placement on two occasions but was unsuccessful.

The outstanding feature of the game was the line plunging by Blake of Ione and Hughes of Heppner. Neither side seemed to be able to stop these charges short of 8 or 10 yards once they got started. Heppner gained more yardage throughout the game and made more first downs than their opponents but liked the punch at the proper time to shove the ball over for a touchdown. Two of Ione's touchdowns were made by line plunging tactics and fluke fumble on the part of Heppner. Howell recovered the fumble and got away for a touchdown. It was by far the best game between the two schools in several years and both teams displayed team work that shows they have been receiving some good coaching.

The result of this game gives Ione the championship of the Morrow County Interscholastic League and it is not likely that the two teams will meet again this year.

Arthur R. Crawford of Heppner was referee and Walter Cochran of Ione was umpire.

largely owing to the influence and work of the Woman's Relief Corps, hat today, the flag floats above nearly every school house in our land. Also the order has been very active in securing legislation to prevent desecration of the flag, such as its use for advertising purposes. Furthermore, the order encourages in every way possible the observance of National anniversaries and flag day.

In this department, which means the State of Oregon, it is customary to present a large flag to the High School in the City where the annual Convention is held. The presentation takes place with beautiful and appropriate ceremonies. It is truly an inspiring sight, one to cause the heart throbs to quicken and the eyes to grow misty, as our flag, your flag, my flag, the flag that makes us free, slowly rises to the top of the staff and flings its glorious colors to the breeze, while the bands are playing "The Star Spangled Banner."

The watchword of the Woman's Relief Corps has ever been and will ever be, "to assist the Grand Army of the Republic in its noble work of caring for afflicted comrades and their dependent ones." Its Creed is embodied in the thrilling words of our nation-wide salute to the flag. "I pledge allegiance to my flag and to the Republic for which it stands. One nation, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all." BERTHA DREW GILMAN.
Department Press Correspondent.

IONE

F. T. Calkins and family departed on Monday for their new home at Portland.

Editor Cochran was called to Heppner the first of the week to assist the Herald man in getting his edition off the press.

Mrs. C. W. McNamer departed on Wednesday for a visit with her parents residing at Prescott, Wash.

C. Melville and family are new arrivals from Eugene, Oregon. They will locate on one of the Oregon-Dakota Land Co. tracts northeast of Lexington where they expect to begin farming operations at once.

Election day passed off very quietly in Ione and a large vote was polled. No excitement manifest over the result as it seemed to be a foregone conclusion that President Wilson would be a winner at least so far as this part of the county was concerned. The battle is now over and we shall all forget it in a few short days.

New concrete walks have been put in this week in front of the residences of Dr. C. C. Chick, Mrs. Della Corson and E. L. Padberg. L. L. Putman has charge of the work and he is busy constructing a new walk for R. M. Akers. This style of walk is the best that can be constructed and these improvements are of the character that spells permanence.

Heppner High came down to Ione, played the game, and went home with the score 3 to 13 favor of the local team. It was a good game, well played and no dissatisfaction. The Heppner boys showed much improvement and the tussel was a close one all the way through, a fact not altogether revealed by the score. A number of the high school students accompanied the team to Ione.

Rains of the past week have put the fields in excellent shape for the plow, and many are preparing their summerfallow land for the seeding. There seems to be quite a tendency on the part of the farmers to forego owing until early spring, being somewhat afraid of freezing out. And there is also the Jim Hill to contend with, which makes it almost imperative to postpone seeding until spring. The prospects for another season of abundant crops is mighty good around here.

Mrs. Leatha Ellen Woods and Ben J. Buschke were married at the home of the grooms parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Buschke, on Sunday last, C. W. Reynolds, of Ione officiating. A number of friends were present from this place and joined with the Buschke family in disposing of the splendid feast prepared for the occasion. The ceremony was performed at 2 p. m. and the feast followed immediately. They were the recipients, also of a number of beautiful and useful presents.

J. T. Knappenberg has received a new tractor and three-bottom plow from the Case people at Portland, and the machine is to be used on the Straight place where it was taken yesterday. It is a small machine and should it prove successful others will adopt this method of doing their plowing. Some machine of this character will help largely in solving the plowing problem of our light lands and

MORROW VOTED FOR THE DRY MEASURE

Normal School Bill Wins County By Narrow Margin—Full Rental Bill Buried Under Deep and Single Item Veto Carries in the County.

Morrow County's vote on the referred measures and the initiated bills shows strange results. Here is a county that voted 448 for and 651 against the negro suffrage amendment bill and then went right on down the ballot and rolled up a vote of 579 for and 568 against the Pendleton Normal bill. This must signify that we voters are ignorant and know that we are ignorant. Many people have said since the election that they did not understand the negro suffrage bill and for that reason voted against it.

Another fact is evident. Morrow county is growing more strongly in favor of a dry state each year. In bygone days it was a nip and tuck fight in this county between the wet and dry forces. Tuesday the Brewers' bill was swept under by a decisive vote of 465 to 878. Reports from the state at large indicate that the complete prohibition bill has carried. This county voted 829 to 464 for the prohibition measure.

If the result in Morrow county is a measure by which to judge the vote of the state at large, U'Ren's Rental Value Land Tax bill has gone down with a crushing defeat. The vote here on this measure stands 261 for to 839 against. It is the most badly beaten measure on the ballot. Rural Credits bill Tax Limitation and Single Item Veto of which were fully explained through a campaign of education, carried in this county. Results from the state at large are incomplete.

Mr. Knappenberg is entitled to credit for his enterprise in placing one of these tractors on his lands. The cost of plowing will be greatly reduced and much more work can be accomplished by fewer hands. We hope the machine will prove a success as they can be generally adopted for farm work.

Wrestlers Will Appear Here.

Local sport fans will have an opportunity of witnessing a fast match when Frank McCarroll of Pendleton and Nifty Brown of St. Paul come together on the mat in this city on Saturday night of November 18. McCarroll, who weighs 169 pounds, is one of the most clever wrestlers in the Northwest and Brown is a star of the middle western states. He has been wrestling around Spokane. Brown is slightly heavier than McCarroll, weighing 170 pounds. They will go to a finish, and the one winning two falls out of three will be awarded the match. The affair will be staged in the opera house.
